

Steven S. Schulte

LICENSES

Steven Schulte is licensed to practice law in all courts of the State of Texas. Steven is also admitted to practice in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Texas.

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Steven joined Roberts and Roberts in June 2006. Before joining the firm, Steven graduated cum laude in 2001 with a Bachelor of Arts (B.A.) degree in Political Science from Southern Methodist University. He received a Doctorate of Jurisprudence (J.D.) and a Master of Laws (LL.M.) in Taxation from Southern Methodist University's Dedman School of Law in 2005 and in 2006 respectively.

While attending law school, Steven participated in Southern Methodist University's civil legal clinic, which provides pro bono legal services for indigent clients. As a student attorney, Steven represented clients in different practice arenas including bankruptcy, contracts, negligence, landlord-tenant, DTPA, and residential foreclosure. In particular, Steven worked tirelessly to negotiate the postponement of a foreclosure sale on a client's residence, and to resolve a client's financial dispute with a major credit card company. Steven was later selected to serve as the clinic's chief counsel. In this role, Steven assisted new student attorneys on case work and client representation.

In addition to his involvement with the SMU civil clinic, Steven served as a legal research assistant for a sole practitioner in Dallas, Texas. Steven also has experience working as an extern with the United States Department of Justice, Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearms.

Steven is currently a member of the American Bar Association, State Bar of Texas, and the Smith County Bar Association. He is also a member of the American Association for Justice and the Texas Trial Lawyers Association.

PERSONAL BACKGROUND AND INTERESTS

Steven was born on January 26, 1979 in Toledo, Ohio. In his spare time, Steven enjoys reading novels and running. Steven is also involved with his church.
